Re: IAIP04F001

Dear [REDACTED]

Your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Homeland Security, dated December 31, 2003, for copies of all documents relating to Urban Exploration, Urban Explorers, and or Urban Adventurers. Your request was referred to the Directorate for Information Analysis and Infrastructure Protection (IAIP) by the Departmental Disclosure Officer and was assigned case #IAIP04F001.

After a thorough search of directorate files, no records responsive to your request were identified.

This "no records" finding may be considered an adverse determination. This determination has been made by the undersigned Initial Denial Authority. If you disagree with this decision, you may file an appeal by submitting a written notice to the following address: Director, Departmental Disclosure; Privacy Office, Department of Homeland Security, Washington, D.C. 20528. Your appeal must be postmarked within 60 calendar days from the date of this letter. The appeal should contain the FOIA case number, a concise statement of the grounds upon which the appeal is brought and a description of the relief sought. A copy of this letter should accompany your appeal. Both the envelope and your letter should clearly identify that a Freedom of Information Act Appeal is being made.

There are no fees associated with the processing of this request.

Should you need further assistance, please contact me at (202) 282-8522.

Sincerely,
